

Mercy Memorial Book - A Perpetual Remembrance

Sr. Mary Mark McCarthy, RSM, Sr. Audrey Clauss, RSM, and Sr. Rita Marie Hettish, RSM, read the names of loved ones in the Erie Mercy Memorial Book.

At the entrances to our chapels in Buffalo, Erie, Pittsburgh, Rochester, and the Philippines is a special Memorial Book of names of those who have completed their time on earth and who are now enjoying eternal life. As our sisters enter our chapels to attend the Eucharistic Liturgy, make a visit or pray together as a community, they stop to read the names for that day and pray for them throughout the day.

At the end of the year, the pages are turned back to January 1st and the names are prayed for again each day – each year, in all five geographic areas of the Sisters of Mercy. You can have your loved ones remembered on any day that has special meaning – a birthday, anniversary or the day they entered eternal life.

Sr. Carmen Hayrosa, RSM, reads the names of people in the Memorial Book to Sr. Patrocinia Angay, RSM, Sr. Josefina Deguzman, RSM, and Postulant Adele Sobrejuanite in the Philippines.

Remember your loved ones by enrolling them in our Mercy Memorial Book. It is a perpetual remembrance of prayer—a lovely way to memorialize those you love. Your gift of $100 for each name will enroll your loved ones with everlasting prayers, year after year.

“Each day is a step we make towards eternity and we shall continue thus to step from day to day until we take the last step, which will bring us into the presence of God.”

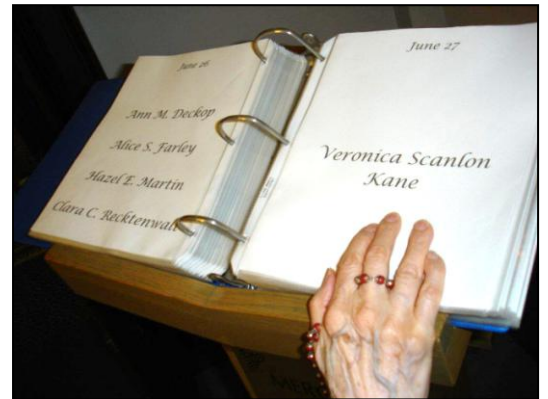

Catherine McAuley, Foundress of the Sisters of Mercy

Sr. M. Caroline Scheuermann, RSM, Sr. M. Sylvia McClain, RSM, Sr. Mary Schmidt, RSM, and Sr. M. Lucy Mullen, RSM, gather around the Memorial Book outside chapel in Pittsburgh.

Sr. Carolyn Rosica, RSM, and Sr. Marilyn Williams, RSM, read the names from the Mercy Memorial Book in the chapel in Rochester.

Sr. Mary Carmen Gualtieri, RSM, touches a page in the Mercy Memorial Book outside the chapel in Buffalo.
